DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, 7, 12-19 and 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cavallaro et al. " a fuzzy logic based speech detection algorithm for communications in noisy environments" Proceedings of the 1998 IEEE International Conference on Acoustics, Speech, and Signal Processing, May 12-15, 1998, vol. 1, pp. 565 to 568.

As to claim 1, Cavallaro teaches a method for detecting voice, comprising the steps of:

Receiving samples of a signal frame; and

Determining whether the samples represent a voice signal using a fuzzy logic algorithm (par.1-2).

As to claims 2-3, Cavallaro teaches wherein the value considered to determine voice is the signal energy (par.2).

As to claims 4-5 and 7 Cavallaro teaches where a measured energy is compared with a threshold energy value and determination is made using fuzzy logic rules.

With regard to claims12 and 22, Cavallaro teaches a voice classification module (fuzy logic) to classify the frame information from their estimated energy.

Art Unit: 2626

Claims 13-19, 21 and 23 are analogous to the claims addressed above and are rejected by Cavallaro for the foregoing reasons.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6, 8-11 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cavallaro et al as applied to the claims above, and further in view of Mikesell et al. (6,990,194).

As to claim 8, Cavallaro doesn't explicitly teach an echo canceller coupled with the VAD as claimed, however, Mikesell teaches a system where an echo canceller is connected to the receiver (Fig.18; abstract). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add an echo canceller to Cavallaro fuzy logic based VAD for canceling any echo within the frame information.

As to claims 6, 9 and 20, receiving the echo cancellation reference is inherent in Mikesell art for the purpose of canceling the echo.

Claims 10-11 are analogous to the corresponding claims addressed in the method claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Application/Control Number: 10/665,859

Art Unit: 2626

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 15-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter because the claimed invention an "article" doesn't fall within the allowed categories of patent eligible subject matter under 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 16-21 are also rejected under 101 for they depend on claim 15.
